Venice, Novemb. 23.

THE Officers that arrived here the last week from our Fleet, give an account, that General Morosini having at the desire of the Captain Bassa, who was in the Neighborhood of Calamata, sent thither one of his Interpreters in a Felucca, he was received at his Landing by an Aga, accompanied with several other Turks, and Conducted by them to the Captain Bassa, who Treated him with much Civility, and shewed a great inclination to a Peace, and a desire to set on Foot a Treaty for that purpose; And when he came away, the Bassa took him by the Hand, and kissed him, and gave him two Handkerchiefs very finely wrought, and eight Zechins to his two Servants, and ten to the Captain of the Felucca. Yesterday arrived here a Vessel from Aubens, which met the Convoy that went lately from hence in the Golf of Ludrino. The Letters from Dalmatia say, that the Chevalier Fanco had made another Incursion into the Province of Bosnia, and had taken a Castle in which was a Turkish Garison. By the way of Ragusa we have advice, that the Consternation encreases daily at Constantinople, upon the news of their ill successes in Hungary, and the Morea. That there are great divisions between the Spahees and the Janisaries. And that the Officers which were sent by the Grand Visier into the several Provinces to raise Men, are many of them come back, and give a very ill account of their Levies. These Letters likewise speak of disturbances in Asia, and that a great number of desperate people are got together, who among other Spoyles committed by them, have taken and Plundered two rich Caravans that were going from Egypt to Persia.

Vienna, Novemb. 29. The Ambassador of Venice hath acquainted the Emperor, that the Captain Bassa had sent to General Morosini, to propose a Treaty of Peace, but that he had answered, He had no Orders to hearken to any Overtures of of that kind. The Letters from Upper Hungary give an account, that Major General Mercy and Major General Heusler, had repassed the Theis, with the Forces under their Command, upon the advice they received that the Turks were drawing together from Buda, Agria, and Waradin, but finding afterwards that report to be false, and the weather growing very bad, they put the Troops into their Winter-quarters, the said Generals taking theirs at Zolnock. The news we had of the Turks having abandoned the Fortress of Giula, upon the Count de Bargozzi's marching that way with 2000 Germans, and 5000 Hussars, has been confirmed from several Hands, but we cannot however give any credit to it, for that neither the Baron de Mercy nor the said Count de Bargozzi hath sent hither any account of it. This week arrived here a Courier from General Caprara, by whom we are informed, that the Princess Ragotzy does indeed promise to submit herself to the Emperor, but at the same time is unwilling to receive an Imperial Garison into her Castle of Mongatz, and that General Caprara hath therefore sent 3000 Men to invest the said Castle. We are told that the said Princess has written to the King of Poland, to pray his Interposition with the Emperor on her behalf. The Letters from Newheusel of the 25th instant, say, that the Bastions ruined during the Siege, are not only repaired, and the Ditch cleansed, but that they have made two new Ravelins to cover the Gates of Comorra and Nitria; And that there is in the place a Garison of 4000 Men Commanded by the Coun. d'Aspremont General of Battalia. This week were sent from hence 4000 Bombs and Carcasses to Comorra, where a great Magazine is preparing for the service of the next Campagne. The last Letters from Poland gave an account, that the Czars of Moscovy had resolved to enter into the League against the Turks. And that a Body of Poles and Cossacks making together about 8000 Men had defeated 12000 Tartars, who had made an Invasion into the Black Russia, under the Command of Sultan Galga their Prince.

Hambourgh, Decemb. 6. We are told, that the Elector of Brandenburgh has made an Alliance with the Emperor, by which he is obliged to assist his Imperial Majesty with 6000 Men, to serve the next Summer against the Turks in Hungary, and to send, if there be occasion for it, a body of 14000 Men to the Rhine, and that in consideration thereof the Emperor is to grant his Electoral Highness the Investure of the Dutchies of Brig, Lignitz and Olus in Silesia. The Letters from Berlin of the third instant, inform us, that the Electoral Prince and Princess parted from thence some days before for Hanouer, where they intend to pass a month or six weeks. The Letter from Warsaw give an account, that 12000 Tartars Commanded by Sultan Galga, having made an Incursion into the Upper Russia, towards Ostrog and Dubna, in their return were attacked near Niemirow by 3000 Poles and 5000 Cossacks, and after a fight which was for several hours maintained with great obstinacy on both sides, were entirely defeated, with so great a Slaughter, that there did not escape one half of them; It's said, that of the Poles and Cossacks above 2000 were killed in this action.

Cologne, Dec. 5. The Imperial Sub-Commissioners went from hence on Thursday last to Duseldorp to examine the three Prisoners Gulick, Sacks, and Mechovius; They would not at first answer to the points they were charged with, but being threaten'd with the Torture if they did not; they afterwards made a very full Confession. They write
